30 August 1955

1. Approval of Minutes
23 August Meeting
(IAC-M-209)

Approved, as amended at item 9a. to read: "The Chairman suggested, and the members agreed, that in lieu of acting on the proposed terms of reference, the Task Force should next define the practical problems which face the intelligence community, taking into account what individual IAC and other government agencies are now doing, or can do, and then recommend to the IAC ways of meeting these problems."

2. Watch Committee Report
No. 264

Noted.

4. International Communism
(IAC-D-99, 22 August 1955)

- a. Agreed to establish a Provisional Committee on International Communism whose first task it will be to draft proposed terms of reference for IAC consideration. On approval, the Provisional Committee will proceed to carry out its terms of reference for a trial period, after which the IAC will review the functions and organization of the Committee, and reconsider the need for a standing committee on this subject. The Chairman suggested that the agencies appoint officers to the Provisional Committee who would be best able to carry on once the terms of reference were approved.

SECRETARY'S NOTES

1. The Director, International Cooperation Administration, has advised that the requirements of his agency for National Intelligence Surveys is identical with that approved for FOA by IAC-D-45/12 (Revision 4) dated 10 June 1953, as revised 18 October 1954. By memorandum dated 24 August, the Chairman, NIS Committee, informed the Secretary that the NIS Committee has approved the release of NIS on all areas to ICA. Accordingly, unless objection is raised by a member at the IAC meeting on 7 September, IAC-D-45/12, Part II, will be amended to reflect the change from FOA to ICA.

2. Copies of NIE 63.2-55, "Probable Developments in Cambodia to July 1956," 16 August 1955, were released

3. The Secretary does not propose to release SNIE 11-11-55, "Some Implications of a System of International Armaments Inspection," to USIA. This matter will not be brought up at an IAC meeting except at the request of a member.

4. In view of the fact that many of those in attendance at IAC meetings are present only part of the time, the Secretary proposes to discontinue the practice of incorporating in the minutes the names of all those attending meetings. Only the principals will be listed in the future. However, in order both to maintain a record of attendance, and to establish the security clearance of those present, it is requested that representatives continue to present the names and clearance of those attending meetings to the Secretary.
